

From July 19th in 1936 Spain to Anarchist soc is still necessary

o here today
cial revolution
y!

On July 19th 1936 in Spain, an anarchist a merciless civil war. While the CNT-AIT r each other with unequal weapons, worke collectivised land on a scale that remain

Libertarian communism: it is poss

They realised their ideal of a free society

The fruits of everyone's labour were dist needs. Decisions were made from the b

From hope to action

This story still resonates with us today a to fight both for immediate demands and make it possible to create the conditions bosses or the state, without capitalism c

The revolution will be a libertarian will not be a true revolution!

Down with capital
Long live libertarian commun social revolution broke out in the midst of militias and Franco's military troops fought over self-managed factories and peasants' lands unparalleled to this day.

possible because they dared!

1.

distributed according to each person's needs from the bottom up: this was libertarian communism.

is a source of hope. A hope that drives us forward for a revolutionary goal. This balance will be a source for a better life for all, a life without bosses or bureaucrats.

1 and social revolution, otherwise it ism and the State!

ism and anarcho-syndicalism!

beyondcapitalism.info

<http://salisnseanarchy.>